

SAN DIEGO – VLADIVOSTOK SISTER CITY SOCIETY

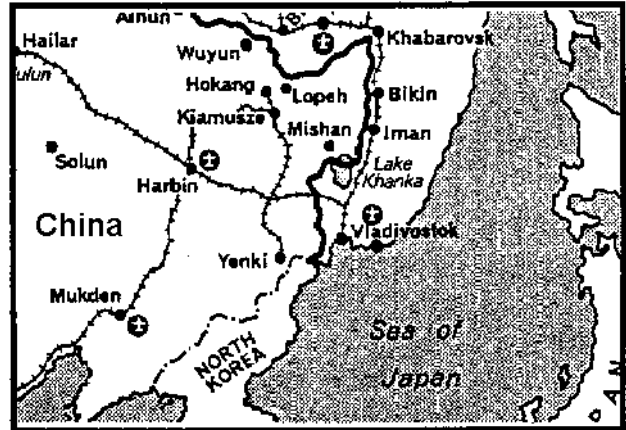

A 501 c-3 Nonprofit Corporation and an Affiliate of the San Diego International Sister Cities Association

* MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION ****

San Diego and Vladivostok officially became sister cities on September 10, 1991. The city of Vladivostok is located in the Far East of Russia is located by China, Korea, and Japan. The city has a population of 595,000. It is 6 time zones west of San Diego and 7 time zones east of Moscow. Like San Diego, Vladivostok is home to numerous naval installations.

The purpose of our Society is to encourage the ideals of international goodwill and peace, and to seek understanding of each country's traditions, customs, history, and community life through people-to-people contacts. Our goal is to develop long-term cooperation between our two cities by promoting public awareness of each city through exchanges in education, business and technology.

If you are interested in Russia, want to make contacts in Vladivostok, or if you want to have the opportunity to meet citizens of Vladivostok when they are in San Diego, please join our Society.
